

MISSION HAITI C/SSJ TRIP 2017

March 13-20, 2017

WHY?

- Provides an opportunity for the C/SSJ family to experience the Haitian people and the beauty of their culture
- Implements the goal of the 2011 C/SSJ International JPIC Team of addressing poverty and discrimination, especially as it relates to women and children
- Expresses our global citizenship by cultivating relationships with the “Dear Neighbor”
- Expands the empowerment of women and girls through education in partnership with Mission Haiti Inc. by supporting 10 girls attending Annunciation School, Leogane, Haiti
- Supports The Companions of Jesus, a community of Haitian women religious, in their commitment to educate the poor
- Strengthens relationships within the C/SSJ Family through this cooperative effort
- Share the State of the Heart in our daily prayer and reflection

WHO CAN ATTEND?

10 C/SSJ Members, Associates, or Agregees

COST?

$900 which includes ground transportation, housing and meals (Airfare not included)

INTERESTED? QUESTIONS?

Jeanette Bussen, jbussen@stjoseph-baden.org,
or Mary Ellen Gondeck, mgondeck@csjoseph.org,
or Celeste Mokrzycki, cmokrzycki@ssjphila.org

WANT TO APPLY?

Contact Connie Pelner, conniepelner@gmail.com or Sue Torgersen, storgersen@csjoseph.org

The 10 Girls from Annunciation School with the 2015 Delegation of C/SSJs and The Companions of Jesus